V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims		YES

Inventive step (IS)	Claims		YES
	Claims	1-18	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-18	YES
	Claims		NO

2. Citations and explanations

Document 1: US 2002/0066025 A1 (Sato et al.), 30 May 2002
Document 2: EP 1248433 A2 (NEC Corporation), 9 October 2002

Document 1 (especially fig. 7 and the part of the description which corresponds to this drawing) and document 2 (especially fig. 1 to 4) indicate that partially encoded music data or digital content is pre-recorded, the remaining portion is received via a network in response to a playback request, and the two components are synthesized to restored data or content to its original state.

In this process, it is a widely known technique to hold content in a compressed format when distributing/reproducing digital content, and it is common general technical knowledge to expand this data for reproduction, therefore the inventions set forth in claims 1 to 18 lack novelty and do not involve an inventive step.
